

CONSTRUCTION SUPERINTENDENTS - TWO EACH

This position requires a thorough knowledge of construction methods, tools, practices, and procedures for a particular discipline and general knowledge of other construction disciplines. A working knowledge of regulations governing safety, environmental protection, labor law and union work jurisdiction as related to the work performed as well as a knowledge of project controls and quality control programs and methods is required. This position requires a technical Bachelors Degree equivalent experience and substantial cumulative experience of at least 6 years as a Craftsman, Foreman, General Foreman and Assistant Superintendent, or a similar level of base knowledge and related construction experience such as field engineering experience. Periodic updates in labor practices, EEO and Environmental Regulations are required.