

SENIOR ESTIMATORS - TWO EACH

Bachelor's degree in engineering / technical / construction management / business and at least 6 - 8 years of experience in estimating. Fifteen years experience in nuclear, heavy industrial or process chemical construction in a field capacity with 10 years estimating, would substitute in lieu of a formal education requirement. Comprehension of engineering, procurement, construction and general business environments.

Working knowledge of planning and scheduling and cost controls is necessary. Demonstrated skill in conceptual estimating, coordination with technical personnel, interfacing with engineers, knowledge of field construction techniques, labor and equipment requirements. Ability to apply advanced concepts and unique methods to quantify work condition impacts on costs is necessary.